Property Description

In an idyllic setting, in St-Pierre-la-Palud, this beautiful bourgeois house of 357m² is located on a plot of 1,458m² with a bird's eye view of the green nature.

This building benefits from a quadruple exposure and the living rooms are oriented south/west. It enjoys a breathtaking panoramic view of the hills of the Monts du Lyonnais.

In addition to its absolute calm, this property bathed in light is characterized by a functionality which has been the subject of in-depth design and which is broken down as follows: Once the front door is crossed, a corridor equipped with numerous built-in cupboards distributes a dressing room (15m²) adjoining the master bedroom, a bathroom, an office, a toilet as well as a large living space including an open kitchen.

This living room of approximately 60sqm opens onto a beautiful sheltered solid wood terrace extended by a summer kitchen with a boules pitch on one side and a flat green space on the other. The upper level offers two large children's bedrooms, a guest bedroom, a bathroom, a small gym and a real cinema area. The lower level offers a garage of more than 70sqm, a cellar and a room whose function will remain to be determined (sauna, pottery workshop, etc.). This level also includes an independent apartment with the same view, consisting of a bedroom, a living room, a kitchen and a bathroom with toilet. This apartment generates rental income (1500 euros per month), but can also accommodate family or welcome friends. The land offers different sub-spaces: a small vegetable garden, a large parking lot, flat areas of grass planted with different species (cedars, olive trees, maples, weeping willows, liquidambar, vines, etc.)

All amenities accessible nearby (near village , bus at the bottom of the road, Sain bel station 3.9km away, Lentilly 10 minutes, Marcy l'étoile 15 minutes away, Lyon 30 minutes away, shops, market, schools, cultural and sporting activities, etc.).

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
