Property Description

In the peaceful setting of Courchevel 1850, just a few steps from the slopes and a ski lift, this chalet offers a serene and refined retreat. Designed with an authentic spirit, it exudes a soft and warm atmosphere, enhanced by the use of carefully selected traditional materials.

The five spacious en-suite bedrooms welcome family and guests in absolute comfort. The living area, thoughtfully divided into different spaces, invites both moments of sharing and quiet relaxation. Centered around a fireplace, the lounge perfectly embodies the mountain spirit: convivial, intimate, and comforting. Outside, the open views of the surrounding peaks add to the magic of the place. And to extend the sense of well-being, a private relaxation area with a pool and sauna completes this rare property.

This chalet gracefully combines comfort, a prime location, and the art of alpine living.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
