Property Description

Located in the town of Caluire-et-Cuire, a few minutes from Croix-Rousse, this 119 sqm Carrez duplex is located on the top floor of a 14th century castle. The whole enjoys remarkable brightness and a breathtaking view of the Saône.

Here, many markers of the old, such as oak parquet floors, French ceilings and vaulted openings, have been preserved and subtly combined with a contemporary vision in order to enhance this place already imbued with a most certain cachet. The apartment opens onto a living room with striking volumes and impressive ceiling height. Bathed in light, the space includes a living room, dining room and kitchen open to the whole.

On the night side, upstairs, there are three comfortably sized bedrooms, one of which has a dressing room and private shower room, as well as a bathroom.

Its breathtaking view of the Saône, its remarkable brightness and its great proximity to the Croix-Rousse are undeniably the major assets of this apartment and make it an ideal property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
