Property Description

Nestled in the heart of the Saint-Rambert-le-Haut district, bordering Saint-Cyr au Mont d'Or and hidden from view, this architect-designed house built in 1990 offers 184 sqm of living space (194 sqm usable space) on a landscaped plot of 441 sqm.

The interior layout is structured around bright living spaces, open to the exterior. From the entrance, a cloakroom and toilet precede a separate kitchen, adjoining a pantry and laundry room. The double living room, bathed in light thanks to large bay windows, benefits from a fireplace that structures the space. The neighboring dining room extends this warm reception area.

The master suite, on the garden level, seduces with its solid wood parquet flooring, its custom-made dressing room and its private bathroom. Upstairs, two comfortable bedrooms share a bathroom and separate toilet. An office space can easily be converted into a fourth bedroom if needed. The carefully landscaped garden offers a serene and green living environment. The wooden terrace, ideal for summer meals, harmoniously extends the living areas. The counter-current swimming pool and the spa complete this relaxation space. All this is completed by a double garage, a cellar and a workshop in the basement. In a quiet location, close to schools, shops and transport, this house with contemporary lines, generous volumes and quality fittings mark a rare property. A unique property designed for a fluid and harmonious indoor-outdoor life. - Air conditioning - Automatic watering - Alarm

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
