Property Description

NEW FOR SALE: Set of two apartments

On the same floor, the main apartment is a two-bedroom, two-bedroom apartment with two bathrooms, two toilets, and a beautiful south-facing living room with a magnificent view of La Grande Motte.

A studio designed like a hotel suite, fully equipped with a kitchen, bathroom, toilet, and a beautiful living/bedroom area with an open view of Lake Chevril and La Grande Sassièrè.

The well-thought-out concept of having the main apartment and the studio as an adjoining suite can accommodate friends, family, or teenagers who need privacy while still being just a few meters from the main apartment.

The apartments also come with two cellars, two ski lockers, and, most importantly, a large underground parking space.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
