Property Description

Located in Lyon 4th, on the plateau of the Croix Rousse, in the heart of all amenities, this loft of 145sqm (132sqm Carrez), completely renovated by an architect, houses a living area and a ceramist's workshop. French ceiling, exposed stones, floor tiles? These materials of yesteryear blend perfectly with the contemporary renovation carried out in these places. The entrance, designed as a cloakroom, provides direct access to a sumptuous living room. The dining room faces a top-of-the-range kitchen fully equipped and designed for moments of conviviality. In the continuity of this space, a living room illuminated by large openings takes place under 5 meters in height. The night side consists of a large bedroom with dressing room, a bathroom and a second bedroom. On the other side, also accessible from the outside, a real artist's studio completes this exceptional property. The high-end renovation, the volumes and the location are the assets of this loft. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
