Property Description

In an idyllic setting, in Dardilly close to the center, this beautiful old house of 170m² is located on a plot of 1300m² with an unobstructed view of the surrounding nature. This 1970 house with extension benefits from a quadruple exposure and the living rooms are south / west facing. It enjoys an unobstructed view of the hills. Once through the front door, a large living space takes place and integrates an open kitchen and a dining room as well as a living room with a glass roof. A master bedroom with a balcony overlooks the garden and is completed by an office. The upper level offers a very large children's bedroom that can be divided into two and another bedroom as well as a bathroom. The lower level offers a garage and a laundry room. The land offers different sub-spaces: a small vegetable garden, a large parking lot, flat grassy areas planted with different species as well as a beautiful swimming pool and a shed. An 18sqm extension that can accommodate an office for teleworking completes this unusual and favorite property. DPE in progress

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
