Property Description

In the heart of the highly sought-after area of old Collonges-au-Mont-d'Or, in a confidential and charming environment, is revealed this authentic golden stone house of 228 sqm, including a separate 20 sqm studio, all nestled on a landscaped plot of 600 sqm with a swimming pool. From the entrance, the tone is set: an intimate courtyard precedes the discovery of the house, preserving the privacy of its inhabitants. The ground floor accommodates a vast living room of 50 sqm, bathed in light and imbued with the character of the old, a bedroom, as well as a bathroom. A superb stone staircase leads to the upper floor, which opens directly onto the main garden and the swimming pool. This level, the true heart of the house, offers a semi-open kitchen on an elegant dining room, ideal for entertaining. Three additional bedrooms and a bathroom complete this warm and family-friendly living space. A separate 20 sqm studio with a kitchenette and bathroom opens up a range of possibilities: guest space, professional office, short-term rental... Outside, the landscaped garden offers a veritable green setting, in absolute calm, enhanced by a perfectly integrated swimming pool. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
