Property Description

At the heart of a pleasant village of Meribel valley, come to discover this renovated village house, offering breath-taking views on the Tarentaise mountains!

Located in a quiet alley, this house has been fully renovated to meet the standards of comfort that can be expected nowadays, while preserving the Savoyard character of the village.

In the basement, two cellars host the water boiler and can accommodate all the belongings of an outdoorsy family, such as skis and bikes. The entrance level opens on a "cloakroom" space to hang coats and leave boots and is followed by a corridor with closets. 2 bedrooms, a bathroom and an independent toilet complete this level. Upstairs, on the main level, the lounge and kitchen are flooded with natural light coming from the large windows and skylight, while offering outstanding views on the Tarentaise summits. The kitchen has an open plan, so that the cook can discuss with guests at all times. On the top floor, a double bedroom hosts a bathtub, a sink and a separated toilet, not to forget a balcony. The large windows offer a one-of-a-kind view to wake up to!

Ideal for a family looking to enjoy the valley whatever the season!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
