Property Description

Located in the town of La Tour de Salvagny, near Dommartin, this renovated 205sqm old house sits on a 700sqm plot. Upon entering, the renovation blends old and modern materials. A vestibule offers plenty of storage space and leads to a large laundry room and a separate toilet. On the same level, a vast living room with moldings and a fireplace opens onto a beautiful stone terrace and the garden with unobstructed views. The separate kitchen has been fully fitted. A master suite with a shower room and outdoor access completes this level. A beautiful staircase with light wood screens leads to the first floor. Four large bedrooms are located there. The landing can be used as a games room or office space. A bathroom and a separate toilet complete this property. The spaciousness, renovation, and tranquility are the assets of this old house steeped in history. It will appeal to families looking for space and high-end amenities.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
