Property Description

Ideally located in a preserved natural setting, discover this family chalet of approximately 190 m², sure to charm you with its generous spaces, peaceful surroundings, and panoramic views. Built on a beautiful plot of nearly 3,600 m², the chalet features 4 double bedrooms, including a lovely master suite, an additional shower room, and a spacious, inviting living area with an open-plan kitchen and lounge. Each floor enjoys its own large terrace, perfect for soaking in the landscape throughout the seasons.

Outside, a terrace with a jacuzzi invites you to relax, while a character-filled barn offers a range of possibilities, whether for housing animals, a workshop, a leisure area, or a personal project.

On the ground floor, an independent one-bedroom apartment (T2) completes the property. Ideal for hosting family and friends, or as a rental investment with excellent potential. A rare opportunity combining modern comfort, authenticity, and an exceptional living environment.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
