Property Description

Ideally located in the highly sought-after Rochebrune area of Megève, this top-floor, through-apartment (dual-aspect) offers a rare opportunity in a well-maintained residence with access to a tennis court.

Situated on the 2nd and top floor, the apartment features a bright living room with a fireplace, two double bedrooms, and two spacious balconies on either side of the unit, allowing for optimal natural light throughout the day.

Its southwest exposure and elevated position provide breathtaking panoramic views over the Megève valley, Mont-Blanc, and the Charvin.

Just a short distance from the Rochebrune ski lifts, this peaceful mountain retreat combines charm, location, and high renovation potential—ideal for creating a bespoke alpine getaway.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
