Property Description

Located in a small, well-maintained condominium ideally situated in the heart of Courchevel La Tania, this penthouse apartment offers direct access to the slopes and all the resort's amenities.

Spread over two levels, it offers a functional layout and pleasant volumes. The first level comprises an entrance hall with storage space, a bedroom, a bathroom, and a bright living room with high ceilings, extended by a balcony with unobstructed views of the slopes and the valley. The open-plan, fully equipped kitchen completes this living space.

Upstairs, two additional bedrooms and a shower room offer a comfortable sleeping area with plenty of storage space.

This rare property, on the top floor, is a great opportunity to enjoy the mountains to the full in a warm, quiet, and central setting.

A parking space completes the property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
