Property Description

Set in a commanding position at the southern end of the resort, this 433sqm detached chalet offers spectacular 180° views of the surrounding mountain peaks. Just 300 metres from the slopes, this exceptional property strikes the perfect balance between alpine elegance and modern comfort, nestled in a privileged and peaceful setting.

Its refined architecture combines noble materials, generous volumes, and high-end finishes, enhanced by expansive terraces and a beautifully landscaped garden.

Spread over four levels, the chalet comprises two independent apartments, offering a total of eight bedrooms (including three suites), two bright living rooms with fireplaces, open-plan fully equipped kitchens, bathrooms, shower rooms, and a laundry room. Two separate entrances provide complete autonomy between the two units.

Additional amenities include a fitness room, home cinema, wine cellar, six outdoor parking spaces, and two garages.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
