Property Description

In the heart of the village, Château Prunier proudly dominates and overlooks the surrounding Vercors. A high place steeped in history, it has preserved its character since feudal times, thanks to attentive owners, while offering a more comfortable contemporary life. Largely restored and maintained, it allows you to discover objects and paintings from recent centuries. Its entrance is already an invitation to delve into what Saint Andrew may have been a long time ago. Today, the building has 4 bedrooms, a chapel, a large and small living room, an old kitchen serving as a dining room, 2 separate bathrooms and toilets, its small chapel, cellar and attic overlooking the facade turret. Ideal for a family, or agree to welcome in an atypical place. An independent and adjoining barn of almost 100 m² (on two levels) is an interesting addition. Lovers of beautiful homes and history will find the ideal place here. The small medieval village is however close to all amenities and 15 minutes from a motorway entrance.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
