Property Description

Pretty Bresse farmhouse renovated to a very high standard, set in a quiet hamlet 5 minutes from the shops. Swimming pool and two gites with income.

This farmhouse comprises a main living area with lounge and open-plan kitchen, 4 bedrooms including 2 on the ground floor, 4 shower rooms, utility room/toilet and veranda.

There are also 2 gîtes, the first with living room, kitchen and 3 bedrooms and the second with living room, kitchen and 2 bedrooms.

The garden is neat and well laid out. There is a summer kitchen with barbecue, a swimming pool and gardens for each gîte.

Several outbuildings including a workshop, garage and bread oven.

This farmhouse would be ideal for running a chambre d'hôtes or gîte rental, but would also be perfect for a large family.

Truly a charming house, very well situated, with zero nuisance.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
