Property Description

Situated in the haute cote de beaune wine area, 5km from Nolay. Creot is a peaceful wine growers hamlet. House is ready to move in, as it is sold furnished. Sleep 5 people and more. Large barn to the back offers extra development possibilities.

Access is via grand metal gate, into enclosed courtyard. The main house is up some steps, as all wine growers houses leave space for the vaulted cellar there under. This Stone house, has been diligently been renovated into a cosy house with large living room with corner kitchen. Here wood burner, and fully equipped kitchen. Owners are passionate chefs. On this level also a shower room with toilet. From here also access to the back garden. Up some steps to a master bedroom, bathroom with toilet, and sleeping area on the mezzanine (three beds here). Just outside the main door, on the main living level: a second room of 20m² with a small mezzanine. Great as extra spill over sleeping space, or to create an office. Large barn is to the back, making extra development possible. The floor print of this barn is about 150m². The roof over the whole structure house and garden has been redone 15 years ago. Property is detached surrounded by its garden. The back garden large enough for the children to kick ball. Garden is private, with no vis a vis from the neighbors. Just 5km to medieval town of Nolay, and 30 minutes to Beaune.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
