Property Description

Situated in a serene wine village close to Gevrey Chambertin, this impressive manor house, originally built in 1865, underwent a complete renovation a decade ago. It offers a blend of modern conveniences alongside lofty ceilings and roomy, well-lit spaces, making it an ideal retreat for wine enthusiasts looking for a hassle-free living experience without the burden of maintaining a garden. Two balconies provide lovely views of the village.

You can access the house from the parking area located behind the church, leading you straight into the inviting ground floor lounge, complete with a fireplace.

In this area, you'll discover a lovely wine cellar and a storage room.

Alternatively, you can enter through the main door on the street side, which brings you into the spacious family room that includes a cozy living area and a sizable dining area.

The kitchen can be reached from the family room or the hallway, which also provides access to the staircase and the downstairs toilet.

The kitchen is well-equipped and has enough space for a breakfast table, in addition to an old fireplace. Beyond the kitchen is the laundry room.

The staircase leads a landing on the first floor that connects to three spacious bedrooms and a bathroom that includes a bathtub, shower, and toilet. This level is adorned with wooden parquet flooring.

On the second floor, there is a bright mezzanine that offers ample space for a lounging or reading area, which connects to two bedrooms and a shower room with a toilet.

From the mezzanine windows you will enjoy the views of the vineyards.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
