Property Description

Hamlet with 4 houses and several barns and outbuildings in beautiful valley on plot of over 6000 m2. Unique opportunity to combine living and working in this beautiful hameau with a main house and 3 beautiful holiday homes (gites).

At the end of a cul-de-sac, this authentic Morvan hameau is hidden in the hills, oriented to the south and with beautiful views.

The holiday homes are centuries-old farmhouses, completely renovated with preservation of old details, but all provided with 2 bedrooms and a spacious bathroom.

The house, also an old farmhouse, is located at the back of the property with its own entrance, garden with vegetable garden, and private parking.

At the moment, the whole property is set up for holiday rental, and has an excellent earning potential in the increasingly popular Morvan. Moreover, the hamlet is easy to expand with 2 or 3 gites.

On the hameau there are, besides the houses, a number of (large) barns and outbuildings, which are ideal for all kinds of activities, table d'hotes, yoga and retreat, painting, office / business space, the possibilities are almost endless.

At short distance all amenities and tourist attractions such as Autun, lac de Settons and Mont Beuvray.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
