Property Description

With its garden directly overlooking the vineyards, in a wine-growing village near Beaune, this large family home with fine original features, built over cellar and garage, offers a large garden with swimming pool.

From the street, an outside staircase leads up to a balcony and south-west-facing terrace.

Three doors open onto the house: kitchen, entrance hall and living room. The main door opens onto an entrance hall which leads on the left to a bright, fully equipped kitchen with space for a table for 6, French doors and a window opening onto the balcony.

To the right of the entrance, a double pane door opens onto an impressive 80m² living room with a magnificent beamed ceiling and original floor tiles and Burgundy flagstones, numerous openings including 2 French doors opening onto the balcony on the street side and onto the courtyard on the garden side.

With some original stone walls and oak pillars, small nooks such as a cozy lounge and a study area, divide up this living space. A majestic steel wood burner is centered on the far wall.

From the entrance hall, a long corridor leads to a shower room and 4 bedrooms on either side. The last bedroom at the end of the corridor could be converted into an en-suite, as a lean-to adjoining the house could be turned into a shower room. In the same hallway, a door opens onto a staircase leading down to the 2 garages. Here you'll find the interior part of a heat pump that supplies heating and hot water. On either side of these 2 garages, accessible from the street, are 2 semi-buried wine cellars on one side and two storage/workshop areas on the other.

On level 1, opposite the front door, another door opens onto the garden, which begins with a large courtyard with a dining area and bbq space.

A small pathway and stone steps lead up to the garden, planted with old trees. You arrive at the first "landing" with a 3.5 x 7.5 m tiled pool with paving around it, where you can lounge in a deckchair overlooking the house below and the garden above.

As you climb to the top of the garden, you have a direct view of the vineyards on the other side of the countryside path, as well as a view of the village with its church beyond the house.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
