Property Description

Located in the charming village of Gaël, in the heart of Brittany, this traditional stone property offers a rare opportunity for renovation enthusiasts looking for a project with character and potential.

Gaël is a picturesque rural commune in Ille-et-Vilaine, renowned for its medieval heritage and preserved natural surroundings. Nestled between forest and countryside, it enjoys a strategic location ? approximately 15 minutes from Ploërmel and 20 minutes from Montauban-de-Bretagne ? with easy access to Rennes. The village offers a peaceful lifestyle with essential local services such as schools, shops, and community activities, making it an ideal setting for families and nature lovers.

The property, arranged in an 'L' shape, comprises several stone-built constructions offering numerous possibilities for residential or investment projects:

The main house, built in stone under a slate roof, includes:

On the ground floor: entrance hall, living room, and two offices.

On the first floor: two bedrooms, a bathroom, and a shower room.

Convertible attic space above.

An adjoining house, facing the inner courtyard, built in stone and brick under slate, offering:

On the ground floor: entrance hall, dining room, WC, kitchen, and pantry.

Also featuring a brick-built cellar and an attic above.

A stone outbuilding, with slate roof, composed of two rooms on the ground floor, a garage, and an upper floor attic space.

A traditional well enhances the authenticity of this property.

The adjoining land, part of which is classified as buildable, allows for various outdoor development opportunities (garden, orchard, extension).

A property full of charm, ideal for a large-scale renovation project, in a natural and historical environment.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
