This residence is in front of Carabassi beach, a unique ecosystem of dunes and pine groves, and next to the Clot del Galvany, classified as a pristine natural area.

Gran Alacant is a municipality in Cape Santa Pola, a green area between the Sierra de Santa Pola and the beach of Carabassi.

Facing the coast, the island of Tabarca is a former refuge for Barbary pirates. It offers, as well as the Salinas Natural Park, sites of great beauty to visit.

The Mediterranean and spring-like climate is present all year round, with an average temperature of 19°C. The Carabassi dunes form a pristine and well-maintained natural area that is home to the main beach of Gran Alacant, a vast expanse of fine, golden sand.

The water is turquoise and crystal clear. This coastal area is famous for sports, including kitesurfing or windsurfing. Several schools offer courses all year round.

The residence is built at about 100 meters above sea level, it enjoys extraordinary views of the coast and has all kinds of services and amenities, with several commercial spaces to meet all needs.
