Where less is more, this contemporary villa features simple, clean geometric lines that are set to be complemented by automated installations, numerous glass openings and recessed fixtures for an ideal feeling of brightness, space and airiness. With all rooms spread over two levels, the ground floor includes an open-concept living room, dining room and kitchen, in a fusion that is as planned as it is unique, giving family and friends the opportunity to bond without restriction, and children the free space to walk through the neighbourhood.

One is located on the main level and the other three on the top floor, opening onto a spacious terrace on which you can spend time alone or with your partner while enjoying the beautiful panorama that stands out from the mountainous area.

You can take a dip in the property's swimming pool, then retreat to the various outdoor relaxation areas, covered or not. You can also walk around your lawn and in your private, landscaped and easy-to-maintain garden, which gives the whole house a relaxed atmosphere.
