Property Description

Imagine living close to Paris at an affordable price. This new construction project is only 15 minutes from the City of Lights. Perfectly integrated into its quality residential environment, this estate comprises three buildings, one designed as a large mansion and five houses. In the heart of green nature, the realization reveals sober writing inspired by the classic architectural codes of the beginning of the 20th century; its volumetry and materials echo the neighbouring dwellings.

The facades are alternately dressed in bright white and elegant beige, emphasising its clean lines, while pilasters in light brick facings enhance their silhouette in places. The last level, designed in the spirit of the 1930s, frees up a terrace surmounted by a pergola, reinforcing the whole's architectural character. The finely crafted anthracite locksmithing railings highlight the harmony of colours and volumes.

In a game of hooks and projections, alternating classic Mansard roofs and contemporary flat roofs, this estate signs an exceptional achievement.
