Property Description

This magnificent historical castle, nestled amidst 18 hectares of land near Sancerre in the Loire Valley, exudes grandeur and charm. With its impressive turrets, spacious living areas, and a wealth of outbuildings, the property offers exceptional versatility and endless possibilities.

The Château

As you approach the castle, its imposing presence commands attention. The two buildings, set at right angles, and the three corner towers create a striking silhouette against the backdrop of the surrounding countryside.

On ground floor

Upon entering, you are greeted by a grand entrance hall with a sweeping stone staircase. The ground floor also features a spacious living room, an office, a family kitchen, a boiler room, cellars, service rooms, and the castle's former butcher's shop.

On first floor

Ascending to the first floor, you are met with a breathtaking reception room adorned with magnificent wall panelling. The large dining room, with its expansive windows opening onto an imposing terrace, offers panoramic views of the village and the surrounding countryside. Additional highlights on this level include a small and large living room, a smoking room, a library, and an antique kitchen. Nestled within one of the towers, the small chapel, adorned with coats of arms, provides a tranquil space for reflection.

On second floor

The second floor continues to impress with a long, sun-drenched corridor leading to nine bedrooms, eight of which boast en suite bathrooms. The final two levels of the castle, steeped in history, hold over thirty rooms awaiting restoration, offering a wealth of potential for creating unique spaces tailored to your desires.

Outbuildings

The castle's outbuildings, totaling approximately 1700 sqm, provide ample space for a variety of purposes. Among these structures are the stables and a converted cottage with a capacity of eight people. Additionally, the castle's small theatre, a gem awaiting restoration, offers endless possibilities for entertainment and creativity.

Additional Details

- The castle's roof and outbuildings (except for the stables) are in excellent condition.
- The property is sold furnished.
- Conveniently located, the castle is within:
 - 2.5 hours from Paris
 - 30 minutes from Bourges train station and airport
 - 30 minutes from Circuit Magny-Cours

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
