Property Description

Country house with outbuildings set in over 2 hectares

This detached property has been renovated including re-wiring about 10 years ago, a recent fully fitted kitchen and a recently installed wood burner. The ornate granite stones around the door and window are believed to have been reclaimed from a ruined Monastery at nearby Savigny-le-Vieux. It lends itself to use as a house with attached gîte or annexe for a relative. The land is suitable as a smallholding or for a couple of horses. The numerous outbuildings offer the possibility of renovation.

The property is situated in a village in the Manche (Normandy region) in the north of France, 60 km from Saint-Lô, the department capital. The medieval town of Domfront is 25 km and Fougères 30 km with its forest, lake and man-made beach. It is about 31 km from the beach and UNESCO heritage site of Mont Saint Michel. The attractive market town of Saint Hilaire du Harcouët with its weekly market is about 5 km from the property and Mortain is about 10 km. It is 333 km from the Channel Tunnel at Calais but closer ferry links are available via Caen Ouistreham (95 km) or Saint-Malo (69 km).

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
