Property Description

In the heart of a small village in the Pays de Bray, Anglo-Norman manor house with outbuildings, extending over 2.6 hectares of land, a few minutes from Gournay-en-Bray, Seine-Maritime (76), for sale. Labeled 'Remarkable House', this residence built between 1860 and 1870 was designed by its owner with the desire to display all the codes of the 19th century bourgeoisie. The house will have several owners, incredible stories until 1978, after which, it remained in the same family.

In the architecture, we find all the codes of the neo-Norman style. Once past the threshold of the house, it is the decorative characteristics of the Napoleon III era that are imposed, an eclectic style mixing the influences of the past. At the entrance, a charming peristyle invites you to stroll.

Crossing the front door, the residence opens onto a vast entrance distributing a small living room with fireplace, a large living room and its astonishing stone fireplace with high relief.

In continuity, the office refers to a kitchen, a toilet, a dining room, an office and access to a veranda .

A superb staircase provides access to the 1st floor as well as a beautiful landing room distributing 5 bedrooms, 1 shower room, 1 bathroom and a toilet.

The second floor offers another 4 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms with toilet.

From the first floor, you can access the north tower , and benefit, from its observatory in a beautiful space converted into a library, from an extraordinary view of the property and the Brayon countryside.

With a living area of 453 m² , the house also benefits from a full basement. The manor is surrounded by 26,568 m² of land, shared between a park with century-old trees and pastures. This manor has also benefited from major technological improvements (geothermal heating and photovoltaic panels).

All around the house, there is an old greenhouse (to be restored), a small neo-Norman style caretaker's house , an outbuilding of approximately 144 m² on the ground, which can be converted into a home and, adjoining, 2 lean-tos and 3 horse boxes . A few minutes from Gournay, shops and all services, this bourgeois residence offers significant potential. Beyond the family home, it can accommodate various tourist projects: gîtes and guest rooms.

2 hours from Paris, 20 minutes from Serqueux SNCF train station (Paris), 5 minutes from Gournay-en-Bray train station (Rouen).

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
