Property Description

This delightful property is believed to have been built in about 1800 and offers character features including a granite fireplace. It had a major refurbishment programme in 2007-8 with works undertaken by registered French Artisans. It now offers comfortable family living accommodation with light rooms and high ceilings.

There is further potential to re-develop the Games Room or even to renovate the barn into additional accommodation, subject to planning permission. At the moment the property is a holiday rental and has been consistently rented out over the last 20 years for about 20 weeks per year. The weekly rental is approximately 2,000€.

The house is in an enviable position with the nearest neighbour about 1/2 km away. There are 360° views over the surrounding countryside and the large, old farmhouse sits on its own and surrounded by its own land. There is a wood close by which is criss-crossed by small streams and is a haven for wildlife. However, 2 miles in either direction will bring you to 2 well-appointed villages. It is just 6 miles to the bustling town of Vire with its wealth of restaurants, shops, theatre, cinema, weekly market etc. and direct train line to Paris.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
