Property Description

BARBEZIEUX (16) - At the gates of the city and its services. This place steeped in history, in the heart of a small hamlet, has undergone a complete renovation. The old barn was transformed into a home in 2023.

Everything is new on approximately 101 m² of living space, essentially on one level. Large cathedral living room, very bright thanks to its large bay window. Three bedrooms including an attic upstairs.

Large bathroom. The kitchen is to be installed, all the power supplies are ready. Heating by air conditioning.

The 80m² gîte on two levels has an undeniable character. An old round tower from the 15th century houses a very beautiful old wooden spiral staircase. Living room with fireplace and kitchen area to be fitted out.

Upstairs, large bedroom with fireplace and bathroom. Attic. This part was also the subject of a renovation this year Sanitation using a compliant compact system.

Two garages complete this complex built on 828 m² of enclosed land.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
