Property Description

Between JARNAC and COGNAC (16) - This stone building of approximately 162 m² of living space is built on enclosed land of approximately 2221 m². The means implemented for this renovation are quite remarkable. In fact, to preserve all the charm of the stones, wall insulation was installed inside And what about the exposed framework of the living room, new and undoubtedly even more exceptional than the frameworks of yesteryear.

The cathedral living room is very impressive with its monumental stone fireplace. Stone or solid wood plank floors. Warm and friendly, this room is the heart of the house.

A utility room, a dressing room and a bathroom complete the ground floor. Possibility of creating a bedroom in place of the scullery. The mezzanine floor consists of two bedrooms and a bathroom.

A pleasant covered terrace gives access to very useful annexes. The wooded and landscaped garden reveals a pretty ornamental pond.

Double garage and carport. Surprising and opulent, this house will delight lovers of quality and comfort.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
