Property Description

East of BARBEZIEUX, 12 min - Charentaise farmhouse of approximately 132 m² of living space with an enclosed garden of approximately 2800 m².

Detached plot of land of approximately 8867 m² ideal for a horse or a vegetable garden.

The south-facing facade highlights the beautiful white Charente stones. We live there on one level. Living room with open kitchen and large bay window overlooking the garden.

Two bedrooms, shower room with toilet. Back kitchen. Oil boiler from 2018.

PVC double-glazed joinery. An 18 m² veranda allows you to enjoy a pleasant view of the land and the surrounding countryside. Significant refreshments to be expected.

The first adjoining barn of 62 m² on the ground and with beautiful volumes still offers possibilities. Old animal roofs. A second large detached barn of 335 m² on the ground is ideal for storage.

Roof to be renovated. This bucolic and charming ensemble is the ideal place for lovers of calm and those who need space for animals...

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
