Property Description

South of COGNAC (16) - In the quiet of a small hamlet, old farmhouse completely renovated very recently. The services are remarkable on more than 450 m² of living space. The generous volumes, bathed in light, benefit from neat and high-end fittings.

Four suites. Projection room. Fitness room.

Laundry room. Heating by heat pump and solar panels. High-performance insulation.

Adjoining outbuildings including the old distillery and the old stable. Independent external access to the upper floor leaves the possibility of easily creating an adjoining gîte or guest rooms. Independent studio facing the heated swimming pool.

Spa room. Carport. Very pleasant environment, not overlooked.

All built on a plot of more than one hectare.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
