Property Description

We've fallen in love with this solid, light, 140 m² stone house in the countryside (but not far from shops). With its 4 bedrooms, bathroom and shower room, it's ideal for the whole family. On sunny days (and even in winter), enjoy the lovely new veranda, with its unobstructed, far-reaching view, where every sunrise becomes a spectacle. Outside, a vast 1.7-hectare fenced plot for your garden, vegetable garden or pet-friendly projects. A recent swimming pool (10x4), well exposed with a wooden deck that invites you to relax and enjoy sunny afternoons. An added bonus: a large basement for storage or a workshop. A verdant setting for spring and summer Information on the risks to which this property is exposed is available on the Géorisques website www.georisques.gouv.fr.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
