Property Description

Magnificent, fully renovated stone property comprising an imposing main house, guest house and swimming pool set within 1ha of beautiful peaceful grounds. There is also a tobacco barn in need of renovation. Close to all amenities. Stunning view over the countryside. This stone house is a real gem thanks to its sympathetic renovation that mixes authenticity with "country chic" to bring about a warm, bright and cosy setting. 3 heating systems (including solar panels), double glazing. The main house offers one-level living with its lovely lounge, spacious dining room, bedroom with dressing room and en-suite shower room and open-plan kitchen (all on the ground floor). There is an upstairs level with 3 good-sized bedrooms. Adjoining the main house there is a huge barn that has been converted to allow for family gatherings or for a large reception room for a gite project etc...

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
