Property Description

Walking distance to the bastide and its services, this architect house built in 1972 offers light and cosy accommodation, set in a very private plot of land surrounded by hedges. The entrance hall gives access to the living-room /dining-room, a separated fitted kitchen and toilet; some steps go up to 2 large bedrooms with built-in wardrobes and a bathroom with bath and shower. And some steps go down to a spacious workshop / laundry-room / studio with a room currently used as a lounge but that could make a third bedroom. A garden shed of over 20m² with a cellar in the basement offers space ideal for instance for storing garden tools, necessary to maintain the green spaces around the house. A must see !

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
