Property Description

Located in Arsac, in a sought-after residential area on the edge of the forest, this 1990s house offers a peaceful and green living environment, on a large plot of over 2,000 sqm.

With a surface area of 186 sqm, it can be lived in entirely on one level. The entrance leads to a vast living room bathed in light thanks to its large bay windows, offering an unobstructed view of the furnished terrace and the swimming pool, without any vis-à-vis. The generous volumes and the beautiful high ceilings give the whole a pleasant feeling of space. The kitchen open to the living room is accompanied by an adjoining pantry-laundry room, giving access to a first garage.

The sleeping area is distributed on either side of the living room: a master suite with dressing room, shower room and WC, as well as two additional bedrooms sharing a bathroom with WC. A large mezzanine, overlooking the living room, has been converted into an office and games room.

A recent, completely independent outbuilding houses a fourth bedroom with its own shower room, opening onto the swimming pool. Ideal for a reception area, an office or independent accommodation.

A second garage and a large parking space complete the property.

A rare property, combining comfort, space and calm, just a few minutes from the amenities of Arsac.

ENERGY CLASS: D / CLIMATE CLASS: A. Estimated average amount of annual energy expenditure for standard use, established from 2021 energy prices: between 2122 and 2872 euros.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
