Property Description

Ideally located between two of the most iconic villages of the Périgord Noir, this property stands out for its blend of authenticity, modern comfort and rare tranquillity.

The main house, understated and elegant, features four bedrooms, two shower rooms, and bright, functional living spaces. Thick stone walls, exposed beams and quality materials give the house a warm and timeless feel.

A short distance away, the small gîte offers a peaceful retreat, with a light-filled living room, one bedroom and a shower room. It's a discreet, self-contained space, ideal for two.

The large gîte, fully renovated, is designed to accommodate families or groups, with four en-suite bedrooms—one on the ground floor—and a spacious open-plan living area. The renovation is thoughtful, enhancing the building's character while ensuring everyday comfort.

Outdoors, the grounds are flat and easy to maintain, completely private and free from any disturbances. The pool and jacuzzi are well-integrated, offering relaxation without disrupting the quiet atmosphere. The silence here is not artificial—it simply belongs.

This property offers excellent potential for tourism, with Lascaux, Sarlat and the Dordogne valley's most visited sites all within easy reach. Yet, despite its central location, the property remains peacefully apart from the main tourist routes.

A balanced, welcoming place—ready to live in or to let.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
