Property Description

This incredible property presents more like a work of art or art gallery. The property is almost hidden, tucked away right in the centre of the historic and picturesque village of Belves but the property itself is deceptively large (approx. 300m²). Accommodation on the upper floor comprises a large open plan kitchen / diner and a separate sitting room and a master bedroom, with ensuite bathroom, both with doors opening onto the upper terrace with views over the rooftops and open countryside across the valley beyond; there is also a further large bedroom with ensuite shower room and a separate WC. The whole lower ground floor is like a gallery (which could easily be converted into habitational space) with a large dining / entertaining room and a further sitting room with access to a dedicated workshop / art studio area. All the rooms on the lower ground floor open up directly onto the garden. Externally the property offers a terrace with views over open countryside across the valley beyond and a private courtyard with garden beyond, another large independent studio, a separate summer kitchen with WC, outside shower and a double garage. This property is a feast for the senses and must be seen to be fully appreciated.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
