Property Description

On the edge of a small village near Mézin, this charming house is a delightful 186 m² holiday home set in a lovely garden of 2,700 m². The entrance, with its traditional terracotta floor tiles, leads on one side to a spacious dining kitchen with a fireplace and French doors opening onto the garden, and on the other side to a dining room with cement tile flooring, also opening onto the garden. At the rear of the house, a large room—ideal for conversion into a living room—opens onto a wide covered terrace. A shower room with laundry area and a pantry complete the ground floor.

Upstairs, accessed via a beautiful wooden staircase, there are three bedrooms, one of which has a walk-in closet, and a very large bathroom. A woodshed, a 30 m² workshop, and a large 60 m² garage with an upper floor of equal size complement the property perfectly and offer potential for extension. The garden surrounding the house features a charming well. Some renovation work is to be expected to turn this lovely summer home into a rustic gem with irresistible charm.

Fees to be paid by the seller. Not subject to DPE. Information on the risks to which this property is exposed is available on the Geohazards website: georisques.gouv.fr.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
