Property Description

This attractive 5 bedroomed house with pigeonier, pool (11 x 7) and artist's studio is quietly situated in the countryside just a short drive to the popular and lively village of Eymet with its local shops, a cinema, restaurants, bars, supermarket as well as a weekly market and a lively year-round calendar of events and entertainment. The house has bags of character and is peacefully and privately nestled in its own idyllic surroundings. Rooms are spacious and light and, although there is already a purpose-built guest room and en-suite bathroom in the large, attached barn there's ample opportunity - and plenty of room - to further develop this space into a gite or multi-generational accommodation if desired. Lots of potential with this one - a must see!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
