Property Description

Located in a quiet area of Lège Cap-Ferret, near the Bassin d'Arcachon, ocean beaches and downtown, this house architect wood frame offers a surface of 208 m2 on a plot of 800 m2, with arrangement of a swimming pool possible. Designed on two levels, the house welcomes on the ground floor a majestic living room and kitchen, all fully open on a landscaped garden. This one, punctuated with tall pines, arbutus, wisteria and bamboo, unfolds around a spacious courtyard and two large terraces that invite calm and meditation. The floor offers 5 comfortable rooms with room of water of which a parental suite of more than 43 m² with bathroom and dressing. Its harmonious and atypical design, giving a privileged place to openings, provides interior spaces with abundant light and reveals the omnipresence of the surrounding nature.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
