Property Description

This superb property is said to originate from The Hundred Years War and combines a sense of history with modern living standards. It is situated in a complete tranquility with a view over wooded countryside with no other houses, yet is in an historic hamlet near Bergerac and has 2,5 hectares of land. The house has five bedrooms, 4 shower rooms, a double salon with medieval fireplace, dining room with 17th Century fireplace, billiard room/library, modern kitchen, summer kitchen, laundry room and terrace. The pool is 12X6 m made with mosaic tiles and has a recently built pool house and solar heating system. There is a hard tennis court in excellent condition and a boules park. The property is surrounded by its grounds and is a true delight. There is scope to add further bedrooms in the roof space. A must see!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
