Property Description

It is not every day that we sell a house that belonged to the Counts of Toulouse since the 12th century. And when you know that this property has hosted for more than thirty years one of the best tables in the world. You will be intrigued by our proposal. Let's add that in addition to the magnificent facilities of a three-star restaurant, you will find 10 rooms of a five-star hotel, a relay of silence among the most surprising in France, decorated by the undisputed master in the field, Jacques Garcia, as well as all the buildings. A unique exceptional property on more than 1250 m2 of luxury and surprise that it would be impossible to describe in so few words without risking missing the point. Guest house ? Classy hotel ? Pleasure property ? School of taste? Any project of excellence can find here a ground of exception. As a colleague would say, a must-see to make your dream come true...

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
