Property Description

A stone's throw from the Aquitaine Museum and Place Pey Berland, this town house offers 135m2 on 3 levels, a winter garden and a rooftop terrace. Benefiting from 3 bedrooms and several office spaces, this property perfectly combines preserved old features and recent renovation. The first level is a reception level for storing bicycles, pushchairs or motorbikes. A sublime period staircase then leads to the second level which accommodates the living rooms: a spacious living room where parquet flooring, exposed stone, original fireplace and steel glass roof mingle. From the living room follows a very pretty kitchen which itself gives access to a patio which is lived like a winter garden with a height under glass roof of about 6 meters. The upper floor consists of a master suite with bathroom. An indoor balcony in this bedroom overlooks the patio below. A second bedroom, an office and a bathroom complete this floor. On the last level, a third bedroom and finally, the superb terrace overlooking the rooftops of The absence of vis-à-vis and the view of the Saint-André cathedral are unparalleled. The location in the city center, the preserved beauty of the place and the modern improvements make this house a rare and terribly original property. ENERGY CLASS: D / CLIMATE CLASS: B. Estimated average amount of annual energy expenditure for standard use, based on energy prices for the year 2021: between 1890 and 2590 euros. Lea Rehnfeldt (EI)

Condominiums of 2 units (No proceedings in progress).

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
