Property Description

On Canal + they'd say: 'This is a property we'd like to see more of' This old manor house is one of those Périgord properties where you immediately feel at home.

The current owners have kept it in excellent condition following a clever restoration in the 1990s. The high ceilings in all the rooms, with the exception of the two large bedrooms (I should say suites), compensate for their mansard-roofed character by their unusually large floor areas.

7 rooms including 5 bedrooms: terraced gardens facing all directions, 3 bathrooms, 2 of which are en suite with the large bedrooms. Large lounge with fireplace. Large kitchen opening onto living room and two terraces. Large semi-buried cellar under the living room.

Very pretty swimming pool also on terrace. Very easy to maintain grounds (ideal for a second home, for example).

Heating and air conditioning by heat pump, fireplaces, electric radiators and electric underfloor heating on ground floor.

Not overlooked. Very peaceful setting in a very pretty hamlet with mills and chartreuse trees.

Information on the risks to which this property is exposed is available on the Géorisques website www.georisques.gouv.fr

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
