Property Description

Located near the center of Castelnau, this charming 19th century house, with an area of approximately 190 m2 spread over two levels, offers an enchanting setting with its green garden. The entrance, decorated with vintage tiling, leads to a welcoming living room and a large bedroom, followed by a hallway leading to a spacious bathroom with period ceilings. A discreet staircase reveals, on either side of a free space, two beautiful bedrooms with sloping and wooded ceilings, accompanied by another bathroom. On the ground floor, the atypical layout presents two living rooms with distinct atmospheres, separated by spaces such as an office and a dining room. The latter, opening onto a covered terrace, offers a view of the garden. The semi-open kitchen, in seventies style with a mosaic of colorful tiles, adds a retro touch. This south-facing family home offers generous outdoor space with a garden, a swimming pool, a wooden terrace, a pool house, a DIY corner, and a green carport that can accommodate two vehicles. Adjacent to the carport, a wooden outbuilding of 80 m², with the typical charm of a cabin in the basin, completes this ensemble, offering additional possibilities.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
