Property Description

On the heights of Castanet-Tolosan, this 229sqm house benefits from a completely unobstructed view over a 3000sqm plot. The recent renovation highlights the typical volumes of the 1980s, with its bold choices and the quality of the materials used. The beautiful living space opens onto the panoramic terrace and the wooded garden. This first level has a bedroom with adjoining bathroom, as well as a laundry room. Upstairs a secondary living room leads to the three bedrooms of the children's area and the bathroom. Two of them access their own terrace. The quiet master suite has a beautiful bathroom and an outdoor alcove. The garage and the cellar of more than 100sqm in the basement complete the services of the house. ENERGY CLASS: B / CLIMATE CLASS: A. Estimated average amount of annual energy expenditure for standard use, established based on energy prices for the year 2021: between EUR1,330 and EUR1,850. Information on the risks to which this property is exposed is available on the Géorisks website Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
