Property Description

Located between Trie-sur-Baïse and Villecomtal-sur-Arros is this grandiose property with 430m² of living space, ideal for a gite activity, offering four independent yet attached dwellings and including, depending on your project, between 4 and 50 hectares of land.

Baptised "Les Jumelles" (The Twins), this old farm property, after the construction of its two towers, bestowed on itself the allure of a chateau. Its interior courtyard with its terrace and swimming pool immediately sets the tone with its plunging view of the pastures and small lake set below.

This estate has the power to adapt to practically any project: family home, equestrian, tourism, leisure centre and its respect of the environment will appeal to those seeking tranquility and nature lovers.

The property is comprised of three sections: dwellings, grounds and 2000m² of agricultural buildings.

There are four dwellings yet they could also make one spacious home of 430m² with eight bedrooms as all the sections communicate.

One could divide the old L-shaped farmhouse into two homes:

The first, previously barns, are 136m² and east facing. They are comprised of a 35m² living room and 15m² kitchen on the ground floor and upstairs, three bedrooms (12m² and two of 14m²) and a 9m² bathroom.

The second home is 120m² and is the original farmhouse and south-facing. It offers rooms of 25m²: a ground floor living room and kitchen and upstairs, two bedrooms. Plus there is a small sitting room and a bathroom between floors.

The Lake Tower, east of the main house, is 114m² and possesses, like the other tower and the two houses, its own independent entrance. There is a spacious kitchen, two bedrooms and a bathroom.

The Fountain Tower, west of the house, is 77m² and has the same configuration but only one bedroom.

The two houses are heated by a central heating boiler powered by wood pellets, cherry kernels or cereals and is particularly economical. The windows are double glazed and the property is served by a septic tank system.

The 4 hectares of grounds surround the house and are principally comprised of two terraces, an 8x4m pool, pastures and a small lake. Possibility to expand to 50 hectares should your project allow.

The 2000m² of outbuildings constitute two rectangular buildings without walls and have high ceilings and can adapt to several types of project.

The property is perfectly situated within range of major tourist attractions such as the Marciac Jazz Festival (30 mins), skiing and hiking (1h), the Atlantic coast spa towns (2h) and the Mediterranean (3h30). Train station and airports in proximity.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
