On the garden of 1700 m² there are outbuildings with more than 300 m².

As soon as you arrive you're going to love this exceptional residence. A paved driveway takes you to the front porch. To the right is a magnificent courtyard, in front several outbuildings and to the left the first house followed by the second (the two houses have been connected to increase the living space).

On the ground floor there is a 34 m² kitchen with a side door giving onto the north side of the garden, as well as another side door giving onto the south side of the garden. There is also a 28 m² dining room and a 30 m² lounge from where you go to the 11 m² laundry.

On the same level there is a study, a shower-room and a toilet.

A lovely wooden staircase takes you upstairs where there are two bedrooms (28 m² and 29 m²) and a 30 m² shower-room with a dressing room.

Continuing from the shower-room is a third bedroom of 35 m² with a shower-room and separate entrance from the laundry.

The second level has a 31 m² bedroom with a shower-room and a 32 m² room to be renovated.

There are several outbuildings, including barns, carports and garages, to be used as you'd like. This property looks like an enclosed Bigorre-style house; therefore, there is an open outlook from the interior. The garden measure 1700 m².

The heating is supplied by mains gas and the hot water is solar. The joinery is wooden with single glazing. The sanitation is connected to mains drainage.

The roof of the house is covered with natural slate.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
