Property Description

In a privileged environment, this unsuspected contemporary single storey offers more than 190 sqm of living space on more than one hectare of land. Its architecture combining several types of roof and modern advances creating perspective plays cannot leave one indifferent. Volume and brightness are the key words to define living rooms. They face outwards and enjoy a clear view of the surrounding countryside. The well-made kitchen is open to the dining room. As for the living room, it is divided between a relaxation area and an office. On either side of these are the five sleeping rooms, one of which has been converted into a dressing room. They share two bathrooms/shower rooms on each wing. The vegetation creates a green setting around this villa. It will be possible to enjoy the various terraces or the heated swimming pool offering a panoramic view. Two motorized garages and a car port offer beautiful additional spaces. It was designed for comfortable family life or to accommodate two families independently. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
